United Nations S/RES/2357 (2017)

Security Council

Distr.: General
12 June 2017

Resolution 2357 (2017)

Adopted by the Security Council at its 7964th meeting, on 12 June 2017

The Security Council,

Recalling its resolution 1970 (2011) imposing the arms embargo on Libya and all its subsequent relevant resolutions,

Recalling its resolution 2292 (2016) concerning the strict implementation of the arms embargo on the high seas off the coast of Libya,

Mindful of its primary responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security under the Charter of the United Nations,

Reaffirming its determination that terrorism, in all forms and manifestations, constitutes one of the most serious threats to peace and security,

Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

1. Decides to extend the authorizations as set out in resolution 2292 for a further 12 months from the date of this resolution;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the Security Council within eleven months of the adoption of this resolution on its implementation;

3. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.
